

EAST LANCS RAILWAY

Listing for issue to: Regional and national media

KIDS GO FREE AT EAST LANCS RAILWAY

- Children aged 5-17 travel free from 5th January to 17th February 2019
- Each child must be accompanied by one Freedom of the Line paying adult

Forget the January blues and blow off some steam with the kids without breaking the bank thanks to a little help from East Lancashire Railway.

From the 5th January until the 17th February, children aged 5-17 travel free on the heritage railway in Bury, as long as they are each accompanied by a paying adult with a 'Freedom of the line' ticket.

So leave the games consoles at home and go on a journey through 12 miles of the beautiful Irwell Valley, exploring everything it has to offer - from markets and museums to walks and art, there's something for everyone whatever the weather.

Terms and conditions apply. To find out more, download your kids go free voucher and to book your train visit www.eastlancsrailway.org.uk.

Free travel is for children aged 5 – 17 only. Not to be used in conjunction with other offers. Cannot be redeemed for cash. Not valid on event days. Voucher must be presented when tickets are purchased to validate the offer. Photocopies not accepted. Sale of the voucher for profit is prohibited. Admission prices are subject to change. Only one voucher per person and per transaction.

-END-