- The Halloween Ghost Trains will be at the heritage railway from 31st October to the 2nd November
- Passengers will enjoy a spooktacular steam train ride, freaky fancy dress and lots of tricks and treats
 - Family friendly - with a few sensational scares

Does your family dare to brace the East Lancashire Railway's Halloween Ghost Trains?

Climb aboard for a journey your little monsters will never forget climb and get set for 90 minutes of frights and fun!

Don your best Ghostbusting attire and take your seats on board the Ghost Train to solve the chilling mystery of The Golden Leg!

Meet the Scream Team and join in with all the fun. Cast a spell Veronica the Witch, sing a ballad with Zombie Bob and feast with Count Brian the Vampire at the scarily delicious station buffet - as long as he doesn't feast on you first!

Every child will receive a free goody bag full of tricks and treats! You can even prepare for the scare with a Creepy Craft Workshop taking place at the nearby Bury Transport Museum - which is free entry with a valid Halloween Ghost Train ticket and the perfect spooky activity for any weather. Tickets must be purchased in advance, so to book your place visit www.eastlancsrailway.org.uk. Tickets are priced at £16 for adults and £10 for children.

The East Lancashire Railway's Halloween Ghost Trains will leave Bury Bolton Street Station on the 31st October and 1st - 2nd November at 17.30, 18.30, 19.30 and 20.30.
